

Rajagiri College of Social Sciences

Course Plan French Language

COURSE CODE: VAFL -05

Course Objective:

- To achieve the basic French language skills and being able to apply the same both on a daily basis as well as in typical basic business or basic study contexts.

Total Hours	Offered During	Recourse Person
30 to 40 Hrs.	1st and 2nd Semesters	Mr. Sreenath Pillai Email: kochi@india-campusfrance.org

Session Plan:

Unit	Topic	Grammar	Objective	Exercise
1 to 10	the alphabet	basic tips for learning	understand different greetings and courtesy formulas	pronunciation, audio and speaking numbers	numbers 0-30	spell your name and phone number	the time of the day
	greetings	diphthongs and grouped consonants	introduce yourself	word positions, greetings countries and languages	long and short vowels	understand from which country someone comes and which language he/she speaks	meet new people occupations	verbs in the present tense	introduce others	what someone does personal pronouns	personal pronouns	correct usage of personal pronouns according to grammatical gender	verb endings
	the article as a personal pronoun	irregular verbs: "être" and "avoir"	understand verbs variation and irregular verbs	first day in university, office

	separable and inseparable prefixes	separable verbs in the present tense	understand basic phrases of household work	key vocabulary
11 to 21	imperative	the 4 different imperative forms	understand basic news and messages	write and understand notes and messages numbers above 30	numerals	ask and gives the time	weekdays and months dates	word order	takes notes and convey information	places in the city food items	indefinite article	able to order food and ask for prices	at the restaurant questions I	question words in present	understand simple questions and gives answers	questionnaire questions II	Plural of nouns	understand questions with finite verb in 1st position	asking for an appointment
	nouns and gender	the grammatical gender	understand the rules of grammatical gender usage	key vocabulary
	Forms	negatives	express likes and dislikes	fill a registration form
22-32	travelling & transport	compound nouns	able to book tickets and ask for directions	at the railway station in definitive article	definite and indefinite article	understand the variations of definitive and in definitive articles according to the case	talking on phone
	Holidays	the four cases	able to talk about holidays	at the airport
	my body	the article as a pronom	able to talk about health and understand the doctor	at the hospital in the supermarket	present perfect, simple past, future	able to ask for items and understand labels	key vocabulary

	locations and directions	adverbs and prepositions	understand directions and locations	the location plan
	Interview		able to write and understand basic E-Mails	writing an e-mail

Assessment Plan:

Evaluation Criteria:

- Final examination. An exam, at the end, will proof the student's ability to apply basic French conversation and writing skills. It will include verbal interaction, reading, writing, and listening task
- The verbal exam will be counted 2 times, surprise quiz 2 times and the written exam 3 times

Grading structure

Component	Marks
Reading	35.00%
Speaking	35.00%
End of course test	25.00%
Attendance	5.00%
Total	100.00%

Evaluation tools

Text reading: Reading exercises will be given in every class to work out in class as well as at home.

Situational conversations: Exercises will be given in every class to work out in class to face different daily situations which may help students in their daily life (for example: on the bus, at the doctor, at university, at the supermarket)

Presentations/oral tests: Personal presentation and test on conjugations of verbs will be conducted in every class.

Reference Textbook:-

Title - SAISON 1 - NIVEAU A1 - MÉTHODE DE FRANÇAIS

Authors: Delphine Ripaud, Isabelle Cros, Caroline Mraz, Dorothée Dupleix, Emilie Kasazian, Catherine Houssa, Elodie Heu, Marie-Noëlle Cocton

Additional teaching material (photocopies and audios as well as soft copies) will be given to the students during the course.

Learning Outcomes

By completing this course and passing the examination, students will be able to have a basic written and spoken knowledge of French with the initial level of DELF A1 part 1. They will be able to understand and use familiar everyday expressions and very basic phrases. Can introduce him/herself and others and can answer questions about personal details. Course outcome

